Brooklyn Drum Call - Grand Army Plaza

June 05, 2010 - Brooklyn

Opening the summer season of the yearlong initiative Black Brooklyn Renaissance, this free event gathers together Brooklyn musicians practicing the art of drumming from many African, Afro-Caribbean, African American and Hispanic diasporic communities including Ghana, Guyana, Haiti, Jamaica, Cuba, Puerto Rico and Dominican Republic. The artists will take over Grand Army Plaza, performing and uniting ten distinct styles of drumming, demonstrating the role drums have played in the history of various cultures as well as the complexity of African drumming practiced in the borough, and includes drumming demos and drum-making workshops.
