

Flavorpill

Music: Global

Black Brooklyn Renaissance

Committed to reminding us of the symbol of opportunity that is the borough's astounding mix of African, African-American, and Afro-Caribbean populations, Brooklyn Arts Council has assembled an impressive list of local artists from across the diaspora—percussionist Talu Green, gospel octet Singers with a Testimony from Brown Memorial Baptist Church, and spoken word artist Climbing Poetree, to name just a few—for a night as rich in talent as the borough is diverse.