

DAILY NEWS

NEW YORK'S HOMETOWN NEWSPAPER

INSIDE
YOUR FREE
BOROUGH PAPER

BOROUGH'S BEST

SPOTLIGHT ON BLACK EVENTS

BY ELIZABETH LAZAROWITZ AND MIKE MCLAUGHLIN

FEBRUARY is Black History Month, and Brooklyn is bursting with events celebrating African-American culture and heritage. From start to finish, this month is packed with art exhibits, film festivals, readings and dance performances.

BROOKLYN ARTS COUNCIL

Fort Greene

(at Brooklyn Academy of Music)

30 Lafayette Ave. (718) 625-0080

Young black musicians from the world of jazz, gospel, spoken world and soul take the stage for two concerts on Feb. 11 and 12 as the finale of the Brooklyn Arts Council's "Black Brooklyn Renaissance" series.