

DAILY NEWS

NEW YORK'S HOMETOWN NEWSPAPER

INSIDE
YOUR FREE
BOROUGH PAPER

WHAT'S ON

Sunday, Dec. 12

JAZZ

Past, present and future: The Brooklyn Arts Council presents legendary jazz pianist Randy Weston and His Trio as part of the Black Brooklyn Renaissance Intergenerations series on Sunday at the Brooklyn Museum, 200 Eastern Parkway from 3 p.m. to 5 p.m.

There will be a special guest appearance by percussionist Ayanda Clarke representing the next generation of Brooklyn jazz.

Weston's trio features bassist Alex Blake; African percussionist Neil Clarke with guest artists soprano saxophonist

T.K. Blue; tenor saxophonist Billy Harper and narrator Kim Weston Moran. After the concert Weston will sign copies of his autobiography, "African Rhythms. Tickets are $15.

www.brooklynartscouncil.org.

Compiled by Gayle DeWees gdewees@nydailynews.com