

Intergenerations: Randy Weston Trio with Special Guest Ayanda Clarke

Sunday December 12, 2010

200 Eastern Parkway, BK, NY 11238
708-625-0080

Category: Live Music/Performance

Brooklyn Arts Council presents Brooklyn's legendary jazz pianist Randy Weston with his trio mates Alex Blake (string bass) and Neil Clarke (African percussion), with guest artists T.K. Blue (soprano sax), Billy Harper (tenor sax) and narrator Kim Weston Moran. Mr. Weston has invited a special guest artist, percussionist Ayanda Clarke, son of Neil Clarke, to represent the next generation of Brooklyn jazz. Join Randy after the concert to celebrate the release of his autobiography, African Rhythms (Duke University Press, 2010) with a book signing. $15 (includes museum admission) Click here to purchase tickets:

<http://www.museumtix.com/program/program.aspx?vid=833&pid=7944938> Co-Presented by the Brooklyn Museum and BAC WHEN: Sunday, December 12, 3 - 5pm WHERE: Cantor Auditorium, Brooklyn Museum 200 Eastern Pkwy. (Prospect Heights) This event is part of Black Brooklyn Renaissance, Black Arts kknnd Culture, 1960 – 2010. The year-long celebration features performances, exhibitions, symposia and workshops, a conference, an oral history project and an archive. More Info:

<http://www.brooklynartscouncil.org/blackbrooklynrenaissance>. Press Contact: Sara DeRose sderose@brooklynartscouncil.org 718-625-0080

Details:

Date: 12/12/2010

Category: Live Music/Performance

Time: 3-5 pm

Phone: 708-625-0080

Address: 200 Eastern Parkway, BK, NY 11238