

BLACK BROOKLYN RENAISSANCE

BLACK ARTS + CULTURE • 1960–2010

SPONSORED BY

MetLife Foundation

A YEAR-LONG CELEBRATION—
PERFORMANCES, EXHIBITIONS, SCREENINGS,
SYMPOSIA + MORE!

Tah Phrum Duh Bush / Photo: Courtesy of the artist

HIP HOP HYBRIDS OF BROOKLYN THURSDAY, APRIL 15, 9–MIDNIGHT

Public Assembly 70 North 6th St. (Williamsburg)

$10. Purchase tickets at door.

A showcase of the borough's cutting edge Hip Hop artists who are working in hybrid and crossover styles that mash-up lyrical influences informed by neighborhood and national identity.

Tah Phrum Duh Bush, the Emcee for the evening coming out of Flatbush, Brooklyn, is well-known on the scene and has the respect of the forbearers of Brooklyn Hip Hop, such as MC Lyte and Milk D. Tah is also a word artist in his own right.

Line-Up: D-Cross, Tantra-Zawadi, Coole High, Dyalekt, LMNOP, Charlotte Mishelle, Saga One, NGoma, Demostina, M-TRi, and DJ Leecy T. Special additions by eYe of Braggin'Rites with dancers Richie Rich, Oreo, Erock and El Julio, plus DJ Tahleim.

BROOKLYNARTSCOUNCIL.ORG/BLACKBROOKLYNRENAISSANCE