

BLACK BROOKLYN RENAISSANCE

BLACK ARTS + CULTURE • 1960–2010

SPONSORED BY

MetLife Foundation

Randy Weston. Photos by Carol Friedman (left), Ariane Smolderen (right)

INTERGENERATIONS: RANDY WESTON TRIO WITH SPECIAL GUEST AYANDA CLARKE SUNDAY, DECEMBER 12, 3 - 5PM

Cantor Auditorium, Brooklyn Museum
200 Eastern Pkwy. (Prospect Heights)

$15 (includes museum admission); visit brooklynmuseum.org/calendar/event/3759 to purchase tickets.

 BK Art Lovers get in free! Visit brooklynartscouncil.org/bkartlovers to join.

Brooklyn's legendary jazz pianist Randy Weston performs with Alex Blake (string bass) and Neil Clarke (African percussion), with guest artists T.K. Blue (soprano sax), Billy Harper (tenor sax) and narrator Kim Weston Moran. Plus, special guest artist, percussionist Ayanda Clarke, son of Neil Clarke. Join Randy after the concert to celebrate the release of his autobiography, African Rhythms, with a book signing.

The Intergenerations series is made possible, in part, by the Emma A. Sheaffer Charitable Trust and American Express.

A YEAR-LONG CELEBRATION—PERFORMANCES, EXHIBITIONS, SCREENINGS, SYMPOSIA + MORE!

MORE INFO: BROOKLYNARTSCOUNCIL.ORG or 718.625.0080