

The legendary singer and composer Toshi Reagon performs at “Intergenerations: Toshi Reagon and Friends” on July 29. Part of Black Brooklyn Renaissance. Photo: Molly Rubin.

INTERGENERATIONS: TOSHI REAGON AND FRIENDS SATURDAY, JULY 29, 9-11PM; 8:30PM: DOORS

$10 tickets in advance and at door. Southpaw, 125 5th Ave. (Park Slope)

The legendary singer and composer Toshi Reagon and her band Big Lovely (Fred Cash, Robert “Chicken” Burke, Adam Widoff, Judith Casselberry) perform with special guests Tamar-kali, Karma Mayet Johnson, Sun Singleton, Stephanie Battle and more. Toshi has invited a new generation of Brooklyn women singers of the African Diaspora to join her in a multi-generational mini-fest of music you won’t want to miss. Presented by BAC with support from American Express and the Emma A. Sheaffer Charitable Trust.

A YEAR-LONG CELEBRATION—PERFORMANCES, EXHIBITIONS, SCREENINGS, SYMPOSIA + MORE!

BROOKLYNARTSCOUNCIL.ORG/BLACKBROOKLYNRENAISSANCE